

At the heart of our vision is the desire to build bridges and build family. This resource is intended to be a tool that would help facilitate you, the spiritual leader of your family, to grow and develop your children in the fear and admonition of the Lord. While not exhaustive, our prayer is that it would give you a place to start in effort to better steward your role as mom or dad.

What follows is a four-day devotional that loosely follows our Sunday sermon series. It includes a passage to read, a prompt or two to discuss together, and a prayer to offer in response to your time. These efforts are simply offered as helpful direction. Feel the freedom to adjust, shift, or redirect the focus as best fits the few moments you take with your kids before bedtime, after dinner, or whenever you choose to lead them in God's Word.

Passage:

Read Romans 10:5-13

Prompt(s):

1 What must we do to believe? What does it mean to confess? What does it mean to believe? For parents: This may be a good time to discuss whether or not your kids have confessed or believed in Jesus, personally.

Pray:

If you have not confessed a belief in Jesus and experienced salvation, this could be that time. If you have, it could be another opportunity to thank him for the simple message of salvation.

Passage:

Read Romans 10:14-15

Prompt(s):

2 What does God say about the feet of the people He sends to bring the good news? Do your feet bring good news?

Pray:

Ask God to give you beautiful feet that would bring the good news of Jesus to people around you.

Passage:

Read Romans 10:16-17

Prompt(s):

3 Will everyone believe the message of God? What can be the result of hearing the message? Why is it important that we share the message of Jesus Christ with others?

Pray:

Thank God that faith comes from hearing the Word of God. Ask Him to give you courage to build bridges with others so that He may give you an opportunity to share His Word.

Build your own Bible Time

4 The intent for the final Bible Time of the week is to help put you, the parent, in the driver's seat of your children's spiritual development. This day assumes that you are growing and learning from God's Word and it gives you an opportunity to model that with your family. As with the days prior, take a few minutes to simply share what you're learning in your personal time with the Lord. Focus on something you read from scripture, then discuss what it means. Finally, teach them how you are applying it to your life. Try to give them the gift of how to observe, interpret and apply, what the Bible says, to their daily lives.
